

Stay one step ahead of identity fraud

What's identity theft?

You've probably heard about identity theft—it's one of the fastest-growing crimes in the country. If your personal information is ever jeopardized, (including name, social security number, driver's license number, bank account, or credit card numbers) we want you to be protected.

- Report your identity theft to the Federal Trade Commission
- Notify credit-reporting agencies
- Contact creditors on your behalf
- Help you file a police report
- Help you replace your driver's license, passport, Social Security card, etc.
- Provide an emergency cash advance if theft occurs away from home

Coverage highlights

To restore your good name, Allied will pay up to $25,000, with no deductible to cover your expenses.

Coverages include:

- Costs of executing affidavits
- Lost income (maximum $250 per day, total of $5,000)
- Loan re-application fees
- Attorney fees

Get your identity back

Plus, you can take advantage of additional services. Through Allied's partnership with Europ Assistance USA, you'll have access to programs designed to help you get your identity back. Just call 866-451-7605, and you'll be put in touch with an experienced professional who can:

- Help you identify fraudulent accounts
- Help place a "fraud alert" on your credit reports

Free Credit Monitoring and Online Data Protection

Credit Monitoring keeps a constant eye on your credit report, and immediately alerts you to any critical changes.

Online Data Protection helps you protect your information online using two tools:

- Data Scrambler™ protects your keystrokes from key logging attacks
- PhishBlock™ warns you if you attempt to access a phishing site
